

Ways to give:

Immediate Memorials Gift

The passing of someone close to you is rightfully a time for remembrance, reflection and recognition. A memorial gift is a special way to commemorate the life of a husband, wife, dear friend, or family member. It will make a lasting statement about what that person meant to you and at the same time advance our mission in a meaningful way. If there is a special program or purpose you wish to benefit, we would be pleased to discuss those ideas with you.

Gift of Life Insurance

If you own a life insurance policy that is no longer needed, consider it as the perfect charitable gift. You can easily name HSI as beneficiary and owner of the policy. This will qualify you for a charitable deduction for the cash value of the policy. In addition, any premiums still made by you after naming HSI as beneficiary are tax deductible each year.

Charitable Gift Annuity

A Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA) is one of the oldest and most reliable tools available for people who want to make a major gift and still provide for their own future. A charitable annuity is a contract in which you exchange a gift of cash or securities for a fixed income for the rest of your life. The amount of the annuity payments depends on the size of your gift and your age (the annuitant must be 60 years old or older and make a minimum gift of $10,000). In addition, a portion of your gift qualifies for a charitable tax deduction. At the end of your lifetime, the remaining portion of annuity becomes part of HSI endowment.

Charitable Reminder Trusts

A Charitable Reminder Trust is when you irrevocably place cash, securities or other property, but keep a specified income-usually for life. When the trusts ends, the property in the trust would pass to HSI, much as if you left it in a will. But because you chose to "accelerate" your bequest by means of a trust, you are entitled to a substantial income tax deduction.
